

Need a Book that is Checked Out? PLACE A HOLD

If a Beam Library book is checked out and you want to know when it is returned, PLACE a HOLD on the book (see example below). You will be notified via your OC email address when the book is returned. The book will be reserved for you at the library's circulation desk for seven days. If after that time you have not checked out the book, your hold will be removed and the book will be shelved.

How to Place a Hold

1. The book you found in the Beam Library catalog is checked out. Click on the book's title.
